

WLOY “Eat and Shop” Directory

WLOY introduces a new way to reach thousands of Loyola students and community listeners with a new website featuring an “Eat and Shop” directory. Offering a quick, inexpensive, and easy way for WLOY Radio and your business to work together to promote each other at Loyola College and beyond! A simple $25 fee is all it takes to put your menu/catalogue online for students and listeners. Businesses can put photos and information about their merchandise online. Why spend a fortune printing and dropping menus all over campus (especially since they get thrown away by cleaning staff), when WLOY can save YOU money? It’s cheap, it’s easy, and you will get a good name for supporting WLOY- a local college radio station!

Details:

WLOY’s new website features front page Eat and Shop links, and only $25 per semester places your business in either “Eat” or “Shop” section, including the following details:

- Link to your website from www.wloy.org
- Address and Phone number of business
- PDF (up to 3 pages) of photos and information (if a business) or menu
- Google Map Locator link so students can have directions to your business

Benefits:

Saves money on printing menus/catalogues!

Cheap advertising to thousands of Loyola students and community listeners!

Support a local non-profit college radio station!

Thank you, and we look forward to working with you in the near future!
